

Alyssa Ardrey

Alyssa brings a unique perspective and varied skill set to her work at Nvolv, enabling her to provide exceptional overall project support and assist in the design, management, and delivery of large-scale change engagements for our clients.

Before joining Nvolv, Alyssa worked as a contract specialist at Insight Global, a member of the leadership team of Girls Going Global, a legal assistant at a private law firm, and an associate at the Atlanta Department of Public Works. These and numerous other volunteer and internship positions contributed to her adept abilities in problem-solving, facilitation, communications, teamwork, leadership, and project planning and delivery.

During college, Alyssa maintained honors on the Dean's list four years running. While doing so, she also served as a liaison to the Spelman Student Government Association, a GRL PWR mentor, a member of the Granddaughters Club, and a Spelman Department of Housing and Residential Life resident advisor.

Alyssa earned a BA in International Studies with a concentration in Economic Development from Spelman College in Atlanta. She also studied Liberal Arts at Pontificia Universidad Católica Madre y Maestra in Santiago, Dominican Republic. Alyssa calls the city of Atlanta, Georgia home.
